If Angels are Real - Q & A

Written by a Bible Believer

1. If ours is an all-knowing omnipotent God OF LOVE, how could so many evil things have transpired in heaven and on Earth without Him being aware of them?
   If nothing happens anywhere in the universe without God's knowledge and consent, God knew from the very beginning of the creation process all the intricate details about our universe, life on earth, and the inevitable conquest of Satan and his fallen angels.

   Unfortunately for humanity, it is Satan who reigns over Earth and he is the very essence of evil. He is responsible for most of the heart wrenching deaths, constant sorrow, and catastrophic events experienced by the inhabitants of Earth. Unless their names are written in The Lamb's Book of Life and they are extended the gift of eternal life, humanity will never fully understand all that has transpired on Earth or will transpire in heaven.

2. Why did God allow Satan (evil) to exist?
   The Bible elaborates on the reasons and provides us with a detailed explanation. The creation of innate evil was not an unforeseen incidental mishap. It was deemed an absolute necessity. When the designated time arrives and God makes His glorious return with all His heavenly angels, every form of innate evil will be eradicated for the balance of eternity.

   Although God's plan for the universe required evil to exist for a very short time, His ultimate objective was to demonstrate for all the angels in heaven, all of mankind, and the entire universe the need for and indisputable glory of His absolute love. Mankind simply plays a small role in God's plan for evil.

3. Who are Satan's fallen angels and what is their destiny?
   Satan's angels, those who have committed the unpardonable sin, are fully aware of their destiny and ultimate demise. They know firsthand who and what God is, what and where heaven is, and the true majesty of the Divine Creator. Because they have virtually no means of salvation, they are fully committed to Satan's quest and are actively preparing for the inevitable battle to overthrow God.

Because Christianity stands in his way, Satan's angels are dedicated to deceiving all mankind and influencing its technology to help achieve his objective. The bible assures us that God is the ultimate ruler. He can and often does intervene and perform miracles on Earth, but the text also makes it quite clear that, until Christ's glorious return, our world is ruled by Satan.

4. Where do the fallen angels reside?

   All we know for certain is that out of all the planets in all the galaxies in our infinite universe, Satan and his fallen angels were cast out of heaven to EARTH. Since God operates from heaven and most military leaders have some form of command center, it is relatively safe to assume that Satan has a base of operations as well. The question is where on Earth, within Earth, or where in the neighboring cosmos has Satan established his headquarters?

   While the answer is of course unknown, we do know that angels are genuine physical creatures and much more than spiritual beings. Since the location of Satan's command center will never be unknown, it is considered irrelevant. The Bible doesn't provide us with a means of understanding their biological makeup, but it assures that angels are in fact spectacular celestial beings. So, it is necessary for mankind to perceive angels from a cosmological perspective. We must also keep in mind just how masterfully deceptive Satan's angels are.

5. How many angels exist in our universe?

   The number of heavenly angels is countless. So, mankind can only guestimate the actual quantity. There is no definitive evidence to support the contention but considering the extent of our infinite universe and the mathematical odds, intelligent life most likely exists elsewhere in our vast cosmos. If so, God's heavenly angels would undoubtedly have overseen the development of life in all other worlds as well. Although the quantity is impossible to gauge, there could conceivably be trillions of angels in heaven and most likely tens of billions of fallen angels that were sent to Earth.

6. Why is God returning with ALL His heavenly angels?

The 20th chapter of Revelation provides one very important detail that many religions seem to overlook. When Christ returns to Earth, He returns with ALL His heavenly angels, not multiple legions. Yet only ONE angel is sent to bind Satan in chains and imprison him in the bottomless pit. If only one angel is required for the menial task, why then is Jesus bringing ALL the angels of heaven with Him? There is a profound purposeful reason, and it is relatively easy to understand.

According to prominent astrophysicists and scientific evidence, our universe is only 13.8 billion years old, and the age of planet Earth is around 4.5 billion years. Based on scientific projections, it is estimated that our infinite universe will most likely exist for another two hundred trillion years or considerably more. So, according to science, eternity is merely in a very early stage of its development. Therefore, to ensure an evil-free cosmos for the balance of eternity, God would most likely have chosen this brief period in the infancy of our cosmos to eradicate evil forever.

The Bible tells us that Lucifer and one third of God's angels were cast out of heaven and exactly where those angles were sent… to Earth. If so, Earth clearly had to have existed prior to their dismissal. An even more ironic fact is, out of all the planets in the universe, our miniscule planet was chosen to be the place where Satan will prepare for and wage his battle against Almighty God.

We of course have no way of knowing, but Satan and his army of fallen angels could conceivably have arrived on Earth hundreds of millions of years ago and long before life as we know it existed. Considering Satan's biblical objectives, it would have been necessary for his demonic angels to influence humanity's physical, intellectual, and technological development to maximize his arsenal of earthly weapons and the potential to achieve his goal.

Even if they reject the notion of Satan and his army of angels, the agnostic community acknowledges that evil exists on Earth and the profound impact it has had on humanity. Our hope is that we can convince them to at least consider the biblical TRUTH before God makes His triumphant return.
